

EXCHANGING IDEAS. INSPIRING DISCUSSION. IGNITING CHANGE.

Ask the Doctors:

Empowering you to advocate for your health

Schaefer Branch Library

6322 US Hwy 87 E San Antonio, TX 78222

Saturday January 28, 2023

3:00PM – 5:00PM

Join members of the C.A. Whittier Medical Society as they answer questions and discuss strategies for addressing issues with your healthcare provider pertaining to improved health and wellbeing.

The C.A. Whittier Medical Society is the local chapter of the National Medical Association (NMA), a non-profit organization that represents Black physicians and promotes minority causes in healthcare across the United States.

Moderator
Krystal Robinson, PsyD
Assistant Professor Licensed Psychologist
Associate Chair for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
Department of Pediatrics
Division of Hematology/Oncology
UT Health San Antonio

Jackie Hayes, MD
Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine
Brooke Army Medical Center

Sekinat McCormick, MD
Associate Professor, Orthopedic Surgery
Assistant Dean, Diversity and Inclusion
UT Health San Antonio, Long School of Medicine

Hussein Musa, MD
Board Certified in Pain Medicine, Addiction Medicine, Anesthesiology
Founder, The Kingdom Healthcare System

Kelvin Bush, MD, FACC
Assistant Professor of Medicine, Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences
Director of Military Cardiovascular Arrhythmia Research
Attending Cardiologist & Cardiac Electrophysiologist
San Antonio Military Medical Center

Ijeoma Ajufo, MD
Psychiatry
Adjunct Assistant Clinical Professor,
UIW School of Medicine
Northridge Behavioral Health